Ramadan Mubarak

The Board wishes you and all in the School community Ramadan Mubarak.

Ramadan holds such a special place in the Islamic Calendar and, of course, in the life of our School. The values that we teach and uphold at Malek Fahd are among those that are treasured in Ramadan... faith, fasting, spiritual reflection, prayer, charity, doing good deeds for others and spending quality time with family and friends.

Such testing times as we are experiencing at the present give us all even more reason to be thankful for each other, our community of care and scholarship here at Malek Fahd.

The school will advise you of the hours that the school will operate during Ramadan.

Due to the current distancing measures in place, Ramadan will be different this year as we will not be able to break our fast communally and with our extended families.

All of us on the School Board trust that you will begin this blessed month in good health and enjoy it safely and happily with your family in prayer and reflection.
