It minimises, on a day to day basis, disputes or indecision about what is appropriate school wear. Students should be proud to wear the Malek Fahd uniform. Sports uniforms can only be worn on sport days specified by the classroom teacher.

Importance of Parental Input:

Your support and encouragement is an essential part of your child's education. Both listening to and reading to your child should become a part of their routine to further enhance their literacy skills.

A verbal recount of the day through conversation is an excellent way to enhance their understanding of the concepts covered at school and to ensure essential communication is made.

We look forward to another wonderful and prosperous year at Malek Fahd Hoxton Park.

On a personal note thank you for all the warm wishes and support from the Malek Fahd Hoxton Park community on my appointment as Acting Head of Campus when Ms Mona Kassem is on Maternity Leave.
