ACYP SOLUTIONS SUMMIT

On Friday 26th July, Ms Usman accompanied two Commerce students, Ayesha Athar and Mubarak Tajudeen, to attend the Solutions Summit to End Violence Against Children and Young People. Did you know that in 2018 the NSW government spent approximately $11.2 billion on cases of violence against young people? The Solutions Summit, where students from 3 selected schools (Malek Fahd Beaumont Hills, Plumpton High School and James Sheahan Catholic High School) presented their views and opinions on how organisations can help children feel safe. Our students presented exceptionally well and represented the views of our school with great enthusiasm and dignity. Congratulations Ayesha and Mubarak on your wonderful citizenship and a huge thank you to Ms Usman.
