MFIS Child Protection: Parents and Community Members - Policy and Procedures for Handling Allegations of Staff Misconduct and Reportable Conduct

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to communicate Malek Fahd Islamic School's (the School) policy and procedures for handling allegations of staff misconduct and reportable conduct, including how the School complies with its legal obligations outlined in the Children's Guardian Act 2019 (NSW).

Scope

This document provides information about how:

- the terms "staff", "staff misconduct" and "reportable conduct" are defined
- allegations of staff misconduct and reportable conduct are made, investigated and managed
- information about allegations, investigations and findings are communicated.

Introduction

Complaints regarding allegations of staff misconduct and reportable conduct are referred to as "formal complaints" and are managed in a different manner to other complaints received by the School. This is because often these complaints are of a sensitive nature and raise potential privacy and confidentiality issues.

Malek Fahd Islamic School requires all staff to comply with a Code of Conduct and standards of behaviour that are intended to prevent staff misconduct and reportable conduct. Staff are encouraged to report any breaches of the Code or standards.

It is also critical that the broader School community reports staff misconduct and reportable conduct (both defined below) to ensure the safety and wellbeing of students, and that the School complies with its legislative reporting obligations. Malek Fahd Islamic School has a legal obligation to investigate and report to the NSW Children's Guardian all allegations of reportable conduct made against staff at the School as defined by the Children's Guardian Act 2019 (NSW) (Children's Guardian Act).

For the purposes of this policy, "staff" and "staff member" is defined to include teaching and non-teaching staff, School Board and committee members, volunteers, contractors and external providers.

Definition of staff misconduct

The School defines “staff misconduct” as conduct by a staff member that breaches the School’s Staff Code of Conduct or other key policies and procedures, including where a staff member:

- displays purposeful neglect of duties/responsibilities
- fails to maintain professional boundaries with students
- consumes alcohol and/or other illicit substances on the School premises
- is physically, verbally or emotionally abusive to others
- endangers the safety or wellbeing of students or others at the School.

Definition of Reportable Conduct

The Children’s Guardian Act defines Reportable Conduct as including:

- any sexual offence or sexual misconduct, committed against, with or in the presence of a child (including child pornography offences or an offence involving child abuse material) including grooming behaviours
- any assault, ill-treatment or neglect of a child
- any behaviour that causes significant emotional or psychological harm to a child.

Some examples of conduct that would not constitute Reportable Conduct include a teacher touching an injured child to administer first aid, raising their voice to attract attention or restore order in a classroom (as opposed to yelling or screaming), or conduct that is established to be accidental.

Making a complaint or allegation of staff misconduct or Reportable Conduct

If you would like to make a formal complaint or allegation of staff misconduct or Reportable Conduct, you can do so by:

- Sending an email to the Principal, principal@mfis.nsw.edu.au.
- Writing a letter to the School addressed to:

Principal

Malek Fahd Islamic School

PO Box 5548

Chullora NSW 2190

- Telephoning the Principal’s Personal Assistant on (02) 8732 7800 to make an appointment to discuss your formal concern or complaint.

If the Principal is the subject of your complaint or allegation of staff misconduct or Reportable Conduct, please forward your concern or complaint to the Board Chair, Malek Fahd Islamic School Board, board@mfis.nsw.edu.au.

Investigating and managing staff misconduct and Reportable Conduct

The School initially investigates all complaints and allegations to determine whether the conduct in question amounts to staff misconduct, as defined in this policy, or Reportable Conduct that must be further investigated and reported to the NSW Children's Guardian. The investigation may be conducted by the Principal or another person on behalf of the Principal, such as an independent or external investigator. All investigations uphold the principles of procedural fairness and confidentiality - information is only shared with those who need to know.

Staff misconduct

When a complaint or allegation does not include conduct that is defined as Reportable Conduct, and it is determined through the School's investigation that staff misconduct has occurred, the School will notify the complainant of the finding and corrective actions that will be taken. Staff misconduct is managed through the School's Human Resources policies and procedures relating to internal grievances, discipline and termination.

Reportable Conduct

After the Principal becomes aware of a reportable allegation or conviction against an employee, they must notify the Children's Guardian in writing within 7 business days and ensure that an appropriate investigation of the reportable allegation or conviction is conducted.

The Principal must within 30 days notify the Children's Guardian of the findings of the School's internal investigation into the matter.

The Principal must inform the affected child and their parents/carers about any reportable conduct investigation unless it is "not in the public interest" to inform them.

Sometimes, where Reportable Conduct obligations arise, the School will also have other mandatory reporting obligations. In these situations, the School will prioritise its procedures for mandatory reporting to the Department of Communities and Justice and/or to Police and will seek advice from those agencies on the best way to proceed with the Reportable Conduct internal investigation.

Making a finding of Reportable Conduct

If the School's internal investigation results in a finding of Reportable Conduct, following the School's notification to the NSW Children's Guardian, the School will conduct a final risk assessment of the conduct, the staff member and the circumstances, and take action to mitigate ongoing risks.

Disclosing information to the Malek Fahd Islamic School community

A parent or carer has a legitimate interest in being told of the process that is being followed to investigate an allegation that their child was a victim of staff misconduct or Reportable Conduct.

Section 57 of the Children's Guardian Act imposes disclosure obligations and prohibitions on the Principal.

The disclosure obligations and prohibitions apply to information about a Reportable Conduct investigation. This includes information about the progress of an investigation, the findings and any action taken in response to the findings.

The Principal or an investigator working for the Principal must inform the affected child and their parents/carers about the Reportable Conduct investigation unless it is "not in the public interest" to inform them.

The Principal or an investigator working for the Principal must not disclose information about a Reportable Conduct investigation to anyone other than the affected child and their parents/carers. However, there are some exceptions to this rule. Disclosures can be made to certain people and entities, such as investigators and carers, if the disclosure is made to promote the safety or wellbeing of the child.
